Where are you from? Folkestone

Occupation: Prefer not to say

Relationship Status: Married

Why did you join the society:
I joined the society as I would like to help younger people. When I was younger it was tough growing up and not having a lot of money or wondering whether I would be able to feed myself and my family. If I can make someone's life easier I will.

Where are you from? Margate

Occupation: Waitress

Relationship Status: Single

Why did you join the society:
I joined the society as I sometimes find it hard to make ends meat. I work a zero hour contract and I never know if I will make enough to feed myself and pay the rent and bills each month. Sometimes I have to go hungry and it's a never ending cycle. The society means there is always somewhere to go where I do not have to be hungry anymore.

Where are you from? Canterbury

Occupation: Student

Relationship Status: Long term relationship

Why did you join the society:
I joined the society to help other local residents during what may be difficult times and may be on the brink of poverty. For a student without a network of support, I have struggled with my own financial issues and it can be a struggle to want to go on. Now I am in a betetr position I want to help others.

Where are you from: Canterbury

Occupation: Professor

Relationship Status: Married with 2 grown Children

Why did you join the society:
Although I am not on the poverty line, I am here to help those who need my help. I come along on Sunday Banquet Days and bring along lots of healthy cooked and baked food that will make a difference to someone's week. I am here to help and support.

Where are you from: Cliftonville

Occupation: Caretaker

Relationship Status: Divorced with 3 grown children

Why did you join the society:
I joined the society to become a part of the community. It can be easy to feel lonely and isolated and since joining the society I feel a lot happier knowing people are there. I have a whole new bunch of family and friends.
