

Life on the Coast

This concept takes inspiration from Pembrokeshire Coast National Park, exploring the journey through the sea towards Skomer and Skokholm Island, where diverse wildlife occupys the coast and intertidal zone. Sailing culture is also investigated taking inspiration from the town of Tenby.

LIFE ON THE COAST

Feathered Frames

'Feathered Frames' is a striking design inspired by puffins, one of the most popular wildlife species in Pembrokeshire, known for their playful nature and unique charm. Their distinctive appearance creates a bold colour pallet helping to create an eye-catching design. This wallpaper is a perfect addition to coastal-themed homes, cafés and children's bedrooms adding a sense of joy to interiors.
