

Escapism is an anthem of the 21st century. A longed distraction through retail therapy, screens and fleeting distractions. But what if escape was not about creating disconnection, instead reconnection to oneself. Solid Dreams is a place where nostalgia and surrealism intertwine, inviting you to ease back into the playful labyrinth of your childhood memories. At Solid dreams, the grass is greener, you can lose yourself in the echo of laughter at the park, the shimmer of bubbles and the infinite vastness of space. The simplest acts of transport are an act of wonder. Tubes twist and coil within and out of the interior. Rediscover the joy of playful ascent and descent with slides, ladders and rock-climbing conduits. In Solid Dreams, you are not escaping life, you are simply remembering what it felt like to live it.

SEEK

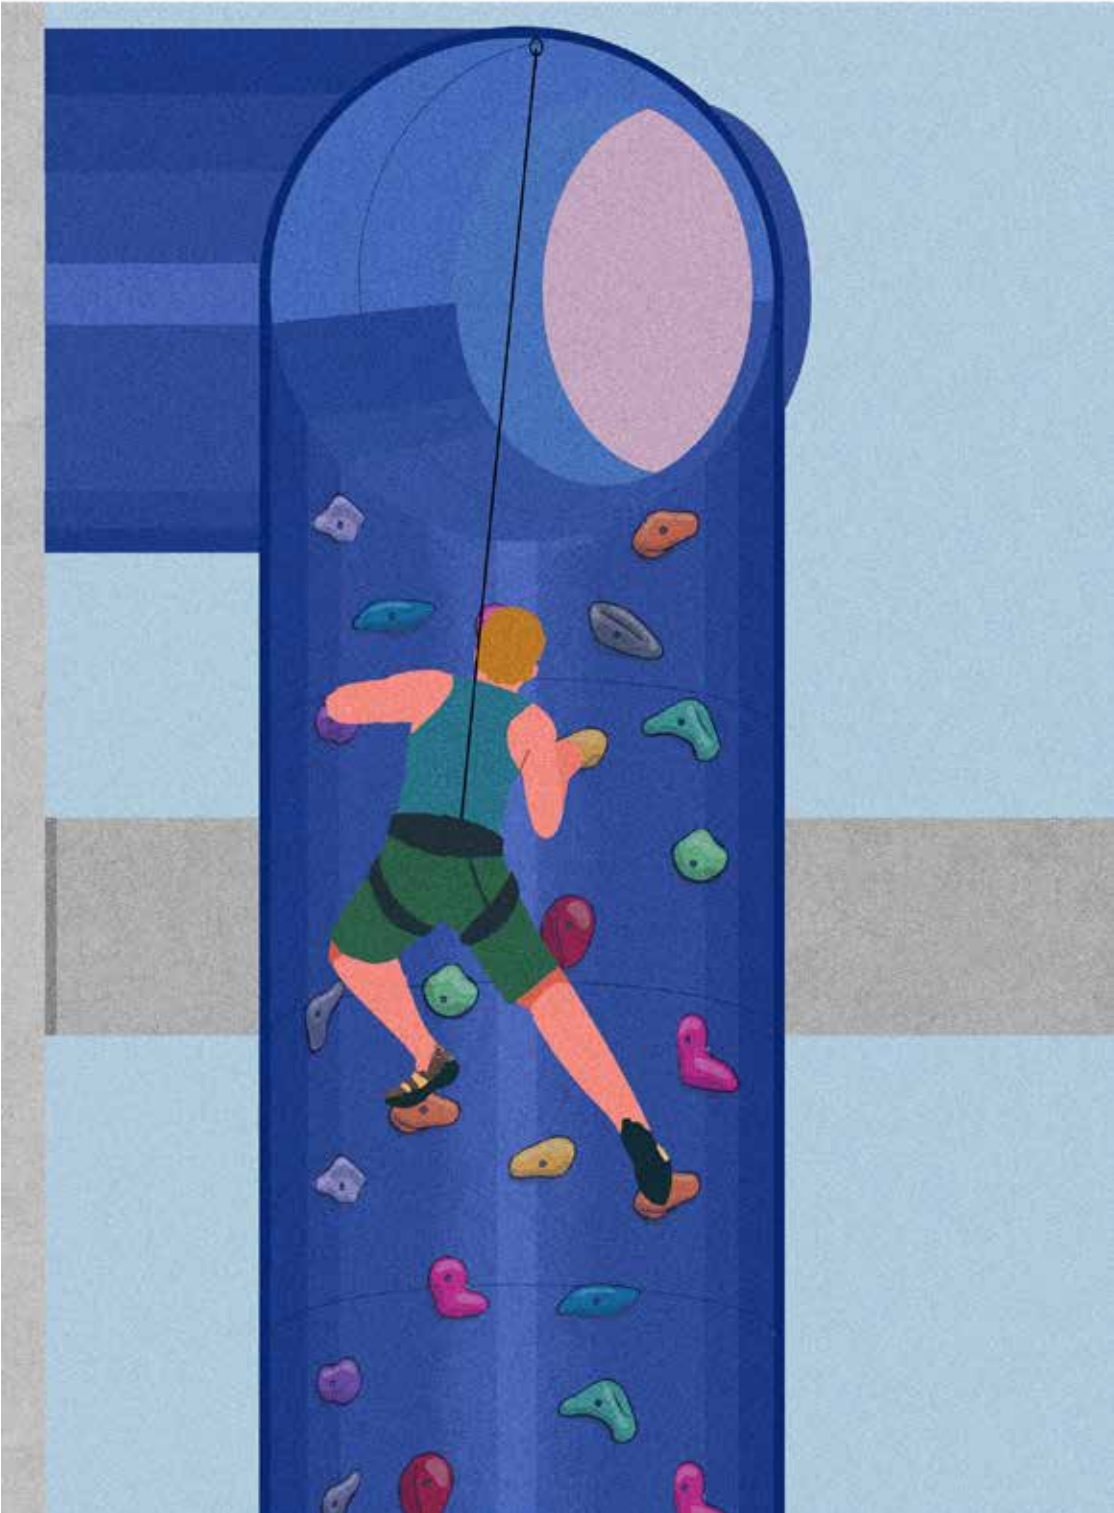

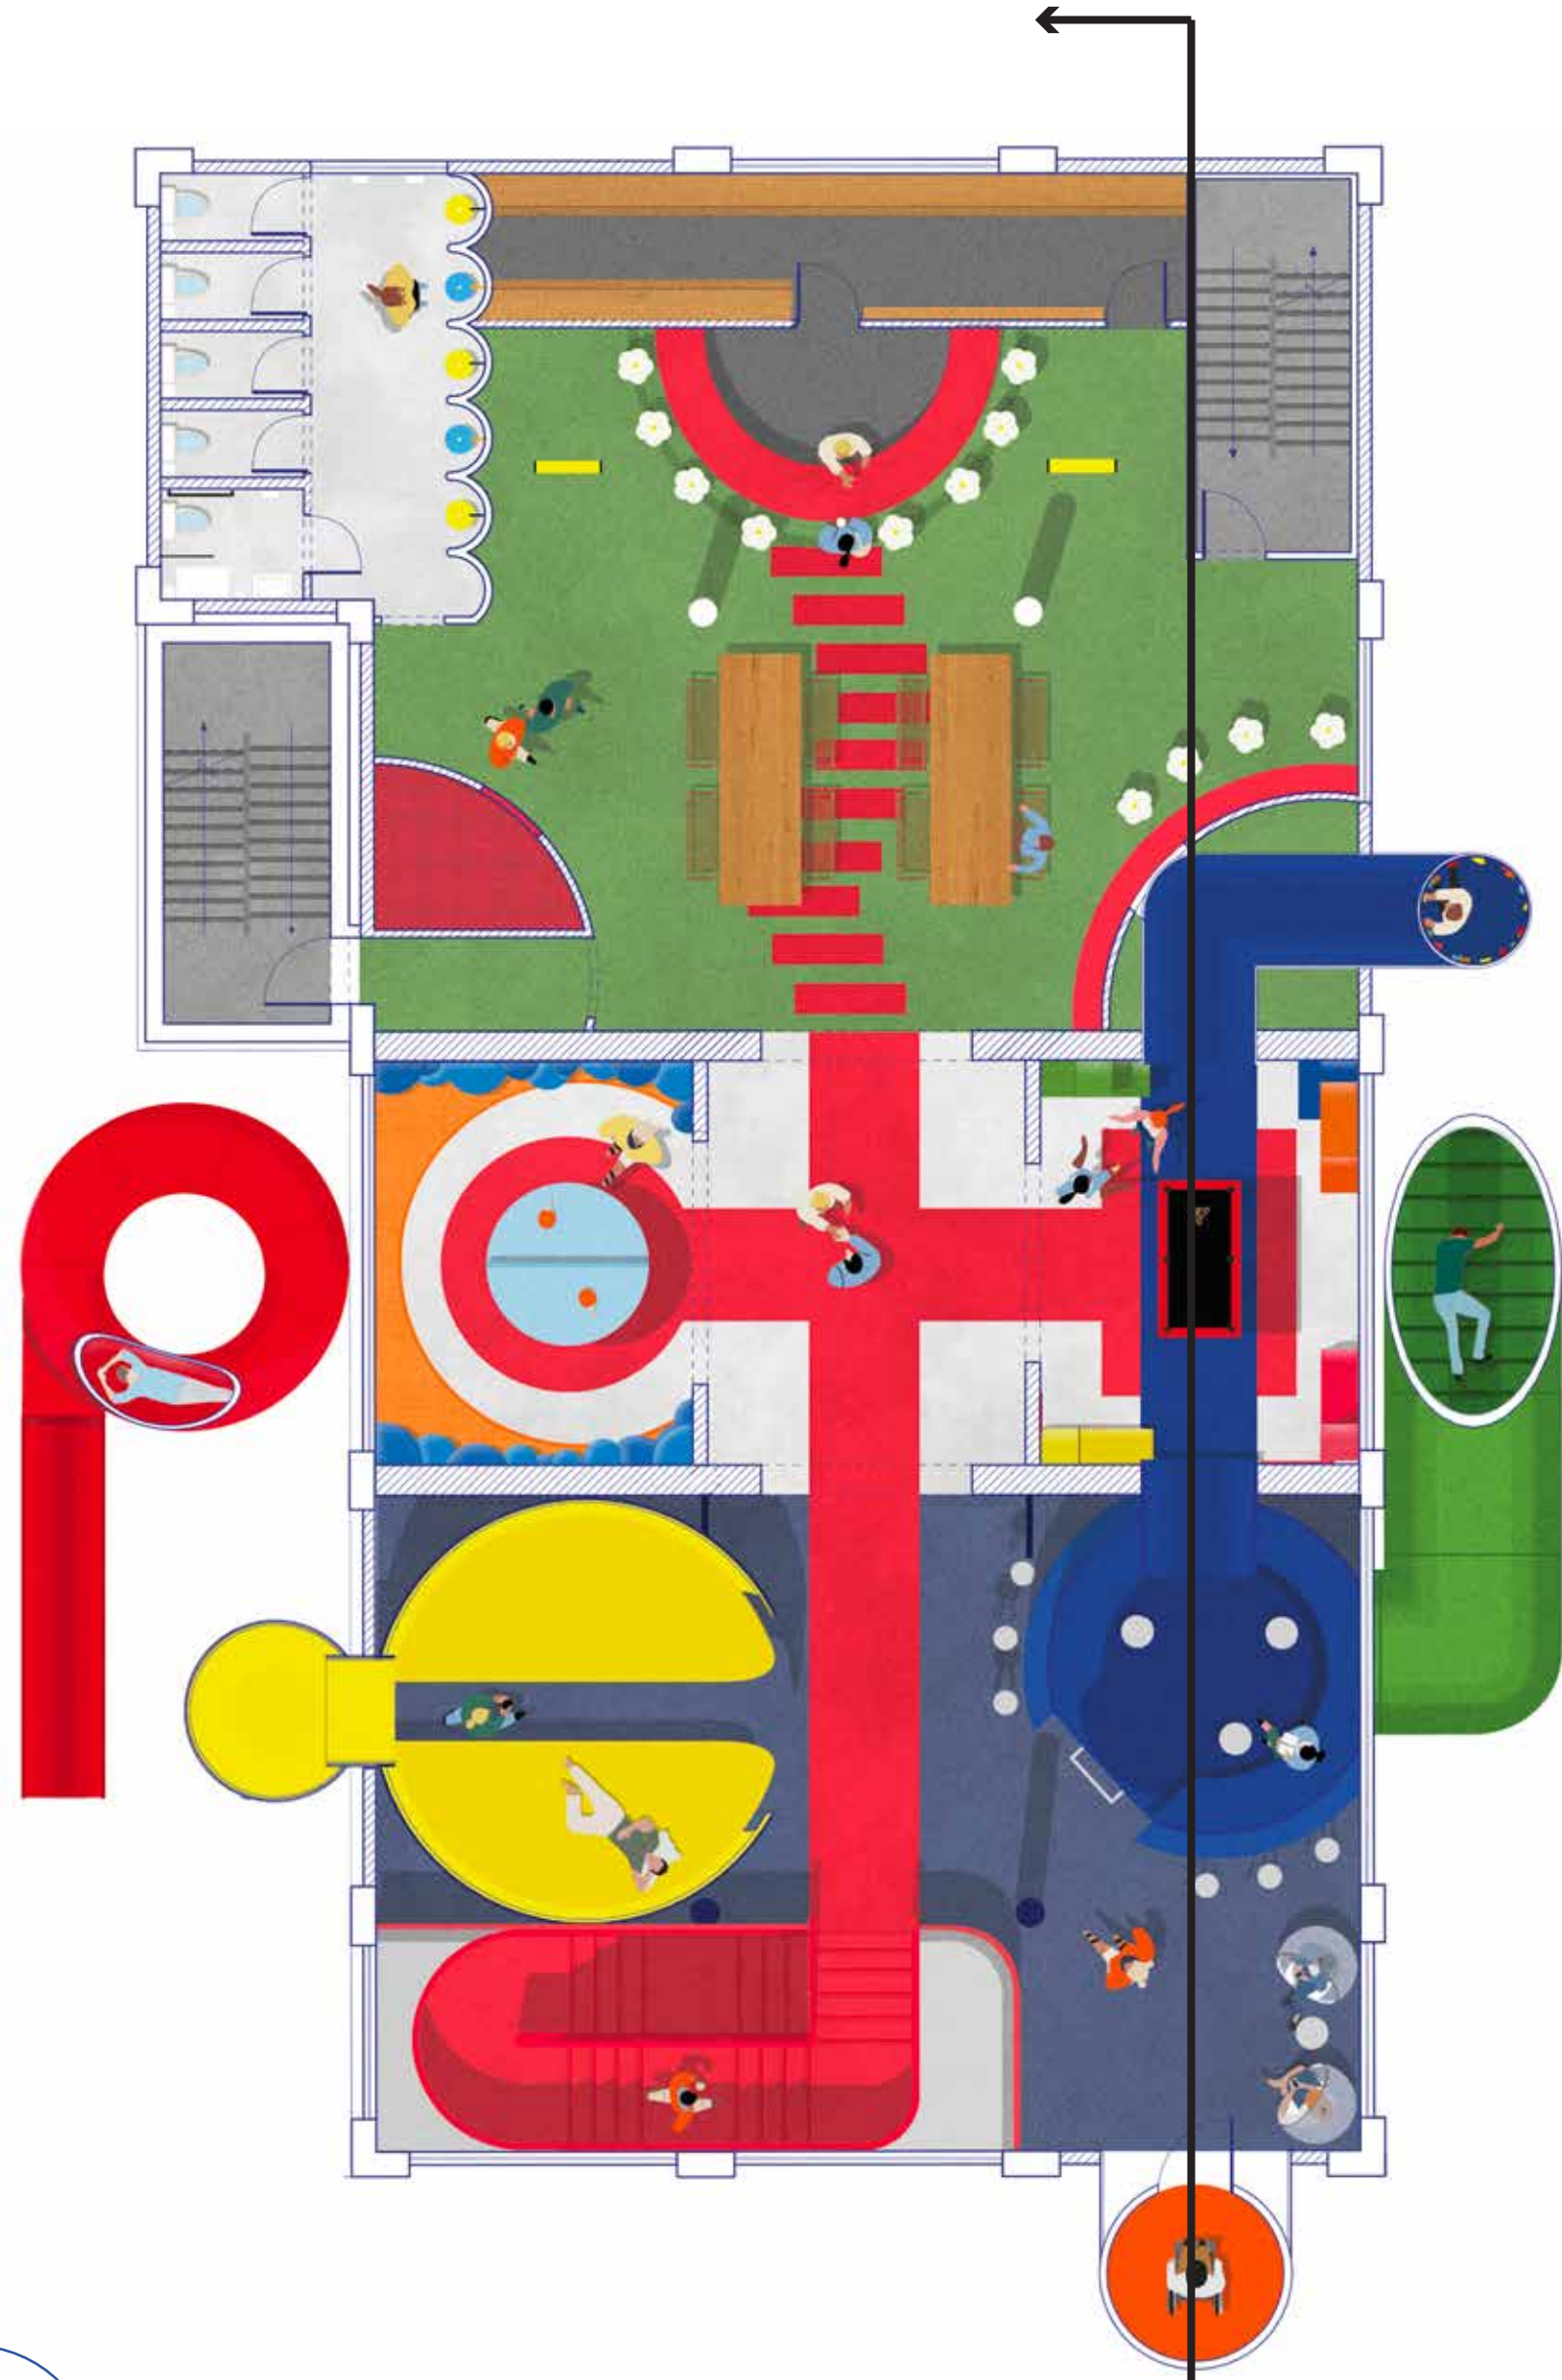

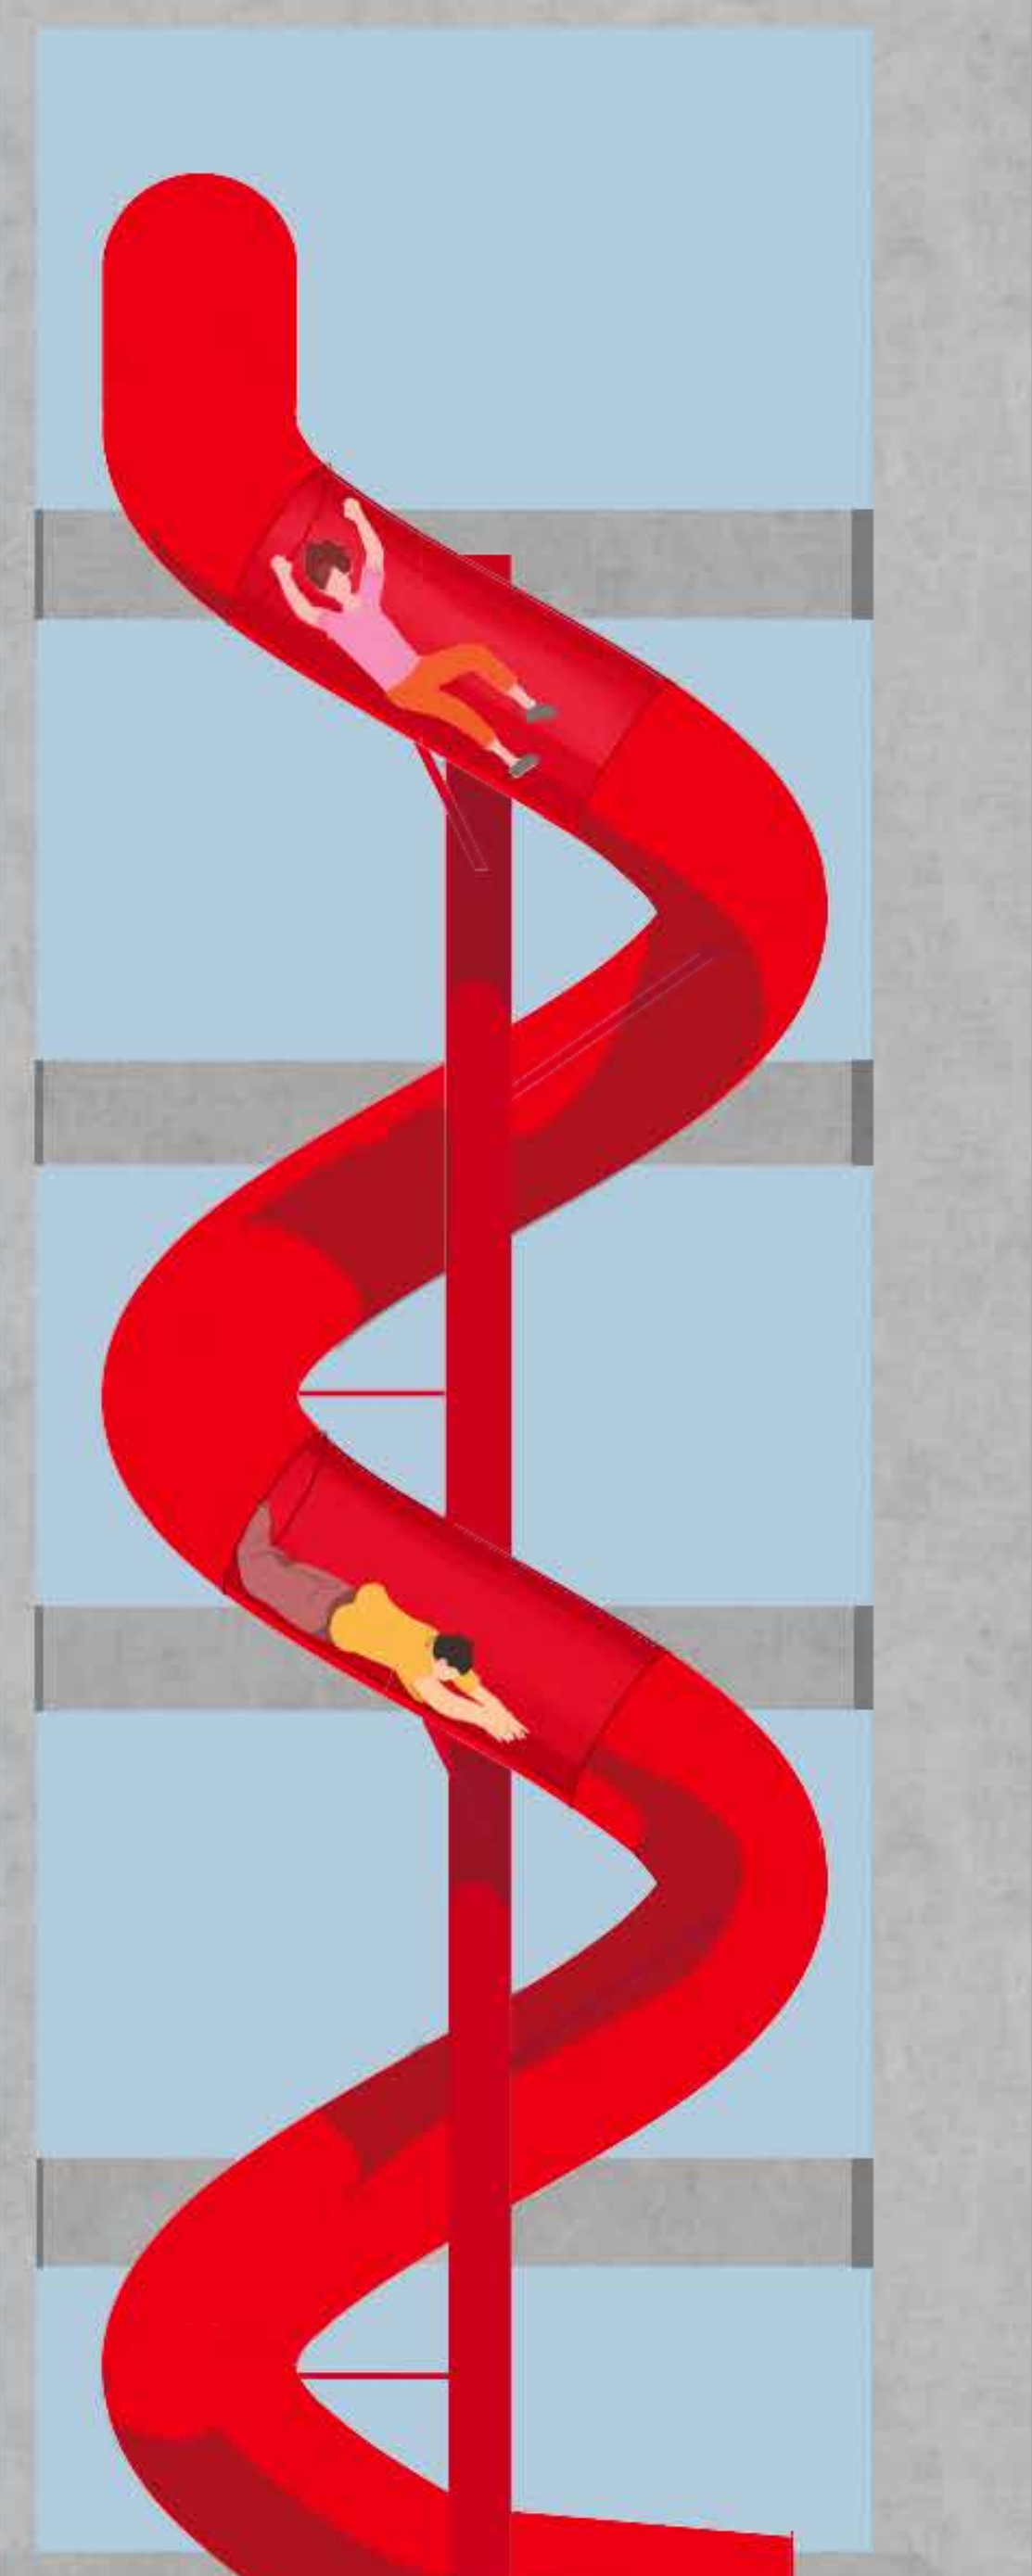

Think of your favourite childhood memories. It is a warm summer's day, the sun is shining, the birds are chirping and the grass has been freshly cut. You are in the park with your family, you have spent the day climbing the trees, playing on the swings and playing 'it' with your friends. You were simply invincible. You are called over to the picnic benches where lunch has been prepared so lovingly for you. It is simply a picture perfect day. Now wouldn't you like to relive and reminisce on these memories?
