

This project explores the principles of unity, constraint, and interconnectedness to create an immersive space that reflects the complex bonds between people and their environment. The principle of unity symbolizes the unseen, yet powerful connections between individuals, particularly in work and community, creating a woven structure that responds to organic movement. here i have demonstrated a range of different scales , proportions and techniques to demonstrated in the breif.

